The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff begins with a C chord (two quarter notes) followed by an Em chord (one eighth note, one sixteenth note, one eighth note). The lyrics "They are more pre-cious than gold," are written below the notes. The next chord is F (one eighth note, one sixteenth note, one eighth note), followed by the lyrics "than a heap of pu-rest gold; swee-ter". The final chord is C (one eighth note, one sixteenth note, one eighth note). The bottom staff begins with an Am chord (one eighth note, one sixteenth note, one eighth note), followed by an Em chord (one eighth note, one sixteenth note, one eighth note). The lyrics "al - so" are written below the notes. The next chord is B♭ (one eighth note, one sixteenth note, one eighth note), followed by the lyrics "than sy - rup or ho - ney". The final chords are G(sus4) (one eighth note, one sixteenth note, one eighth note) and G (one eighth note, one sixteenth note, one eighth note), followed by the lyrics "from the comb.". The music concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.
