

The waters of the river gladden the city of God

Feast of the dedication of the lateran basilica in rome

Ps 46:2-3, 5-6, 8-9

Joey Delos Santos

Antiphon

The wa - ters of the ri - ver glad - den the ci - ty of God, the ho - ly dwe-ling of the Most High!

Verse 1

God is our re-fuge and our strength, an e - ver-pre sent help in dis-tress. There fore we fear not, though the earth be sha - ken and moun - tains plunge in - to the depths of the sea.

Verse 2

There is a stream whose run-lets glad - den the ci - ty of God, the ho - ly dwell - ing of the

Most High. God, is in its midst; it shall not be dis - turbed;

28 Dm Am C(sus4) C F C(sus4) C

God will help— it at the break of— dawn.

Verse 3 B♭ F Gm B♭ C(sus4) C Dm

The Lord of— hosts is with— us; our— strong-hold is the

Am Dm Gm Gm⁷ C(sus4) C7

God— of— Ja-cob. Come! be-hold the— deeds— of the Lord, the as-

Dm Am C(sus4) C F C(sus4) C

toun-ding things he haswrought on— earth.