

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Ps 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14

Joey Delos Santos

Antiphon    D            G            F#m    Bm            G            A            D(sus4)    D

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Verse 1            Bm            A            D                    G    D    A(sus4)    A            D    F#m

You have visited the land and watered it; greatly have you enriched

18    Bm            A                    G            D                    A(sus4)            A

it. God's water courses are filled; you have prepared the grain.

24    G                    A(sus4)                    D(sus4)                    D                    A(sus2)                    A

Verse 2
30    Bm            A            D                    G    D                    A(sus4)            A            D    F#m

Thus have you prepared the land: drenching its furrows, breaking up its

40    Bm            A                    G            D                    A(sus4)                    A

clouds, softening it with showers,

46    G                    A(sus4)                    D(sus4)                    D                    A(sus2)                    A

bles sing its yield.

Verse 3            Bm            A            D                    G    D                    A(sus4)            A            D

You have crowned the year with your bounty, and your paths

F#m Bm A G D A(sus4) A D F#m Bm

o ver flow with a rich har vest; The un tilled mea dows

A G D A(sus4) A G A(sus4) D(sus4) D A(sus2) A

o ver flow with it, and re joi cing clothes the hills.

Verse 4 Bm A D G D

The fields are gar men ted with flocks and the val leys blan ke ted with

A(sus4) A G A(sus4) D(sus4) D A(sus2) A grain. They shout and sing for joy.