VERSE 1

1. A vine from Egypt you transplanted;
2. you drove away the nations and planted it.
1. It put forth its foliage to the Sea,
2. its shoots as far as the River.

VERSE 2

1. Why have you broken down its walls,
2. so that every passer-by plucks its fruit,
1. The boar from the forest lays it waste,
2. and the beasts of the field feed upon it?

VERSE 3

1. Once again, O LORD of hosts,
2. look down from heaven, and see;
take care of this vine,
1. and protect what your right hand has planted
2. the son of man whom you yourself made strong.

VERSE 4

1. Then we will no more withdraw from you;
2. give us new life, and we will call upon your name.
1. O LORD, God of hosts, restore us;
2. if your face shine upon us, then we shall be saved.
